you're also able to use the circle pad to perform various actions such as blocking, dodging, and evading attacks. the circle pad is used to block by tapping the circle in the upper left while in the air. the circle pad is also used to dodge by holding it and then tapping the circle in the lower right as you move. when the circle pad is used for evading, you'll receive a 'pressing attack' notification indicating whether you blocked or dodged. block more attacks and you'll be able to inflict more damage. blocking takes up stamina, meaning you'll have to wait a little while longer to perform the action again. when you get closer to the ground, you'll be able to perform various attacks including but not limited to fireball, fire spear, ice spear, and certain special combat skills. if you target a downed foe, you'll instantly perform the attack on them. if you decide to throw your spear in a particular direction, such as right, left, forward, or backward, you can specify the desired direction by tapping on the circle pad. some how i got along my way but got lost, i was blind i had sin there was no hope i was lost. in the dark i was being led but i didn't know why. it was a desert, without land or water. in a lost place, i forgot who i am, i was forgotten. i was alone, i had lost the path. i tried to get help from the light but i kept being led into the darkness. one day i was in the darkness and lost at sea. i was alone again. i was in the darkest place, i knew no one would get me out. after days of being stranded in the ocean, i was tired and i sank into the dark. i was tired of the darkness and i knew i had to figure out a way to get out of the darkness. i wanted to end the darkness; i wanted light and peace. i said i want the light and i entered the dark. i was lost in the dark, i was frightened. i felt scared and alone i didn't know what to do. i was scared i couldn't trust myself. i had to find my way to the light. i was driven into the dark, for me this was all i knew. i was wrong. i was being controlled by something i was under its power. i started to see the light, it was bright. i felt the sun burning my skin and i felt so warm. i knew i had to end the darkness i said i am in the light. i wanted to go home i said i am home in the light. the light changed everything. the darkness changed everything. i was on the verge of panic but i knew that i would see the light. it was a struggle to trust again. i finally understood, "what i do matters and i need to change what i do." i am free in the light, i have found my path. i am happy, i am light and i am at peace. i no longer feel alone. i am home.

im getting old & havent played video games in over 2-3 months. when i do, i try to get something different, like a racing game, or a shooting game. ive never been into first person shooters. my favorite is still the old first person game "the wizard". it was an awesome, fast paced, fun game. then i found 2 other good games "rockman" and "metal fighter maior". im getting back into video games with classic games. this, however, causes me to play many different older games. i live in cape town, south africa and currently work in the hospitality industry. ive been in love with video games for as long as i can remember. the games that are popular in south africa are mainly first person shooters and racing games. i actually prefer rpg games because i enjoy exploring places and battling creatures in the dark. the first rpg i played was the "riven" game on ps2. i think i bought the game at a local computer store, maybe somewhere around 2003 or 2004. i finished the game in around 30-45 minutes, depending on how long it took me to actually beat the game. i love playing games because every day is a new day and a chance for me to learn something. i love video games because they have allowed me to escape. while there are positive aspects to video games, there are also bad aspects. i enjoy video games but im definitely an old school gamer. i believe that when video games first came out there were less mature gamers. now, everyone is a gamer. you don't need to be a good person to enjoy video games, or to be able to interact with others. i can still enjoy gaming with some of my friends. one of my friends was recently married and he never once played a video game. i asked him why and he told me that he doesn't play video games. just because i enjoy video games doesn't mean that i am a bad person. anyone can enjoy video games. i believe that video games should be enjoyed as a form of entertainment and should be enjoyed by everyone. even those who spend their day stuck in front of a computer playing video games or those who like to play video games for just a few minutes a day. i also believe that games should not be a waste of time. they should be fun and enjoyable, and be enjoyed by everyone. 5ec8ef588b
